HISTORY

Fairfax Baptist Temple was founded December 6, 1970. Located in Fairfax on Braddock Road near George Mason University, the academy opened in 1976 offering Kindergarten through 6th grade classes. In its second year, the academy expanded to include a junior and senior high school program, and a four-year-old preschool program was added a few years later. As the church and academy grew, through God's miraculous provision, both were able to move to the current 28-acre location in Fairfax Station on the Fairfax County Parkway in 2000. A second building program followed in 2004, adding the elementary wing and gymnasium. In 2014, the preschool was expanded to include a 3-year-old class.

COMMUNITY

Fairfax Baptist Temple Academy is located in Fairfax Station, Virginia, a suburb of our nation's capital, Washington D.C.

ADMISSIONS

Fairfax Baptist Temple Academy shall admit students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

DIVERSITY

The academy has tremendous diversity in its student body:

Caucasian	47%

ACADEMICS

---

Fairfax Baptist Temple Academy offers two types of diplomas: a standard diploma and an advanced studies diploma. Both diplomas are college preparatory and have greater credit demands than those required by the Virginia Department of Education's standards for graduation.

Fairfax Baptist Temple Academy uses a traditional approach to teaching, using the Abeka Book curriculum for preschool and elementary classes and the BJU Press curriculum for junior and senior high school classes.

The following grading scale is observed for all 1st through 12th grade classes:

A	93 - 100	C	73 - 76
A-	90 - 92	C-	70 - 72
B+	87 - 90	D+	68 - 69
B	83 - 86	D	65 - 67
B-	80 - 82	F	0 - 64
C+	77 - 79
